

Basically a long (40'!!) extended tunnel, the Future Tunnel serves a creative navigation tool for your event. Add lighting and projection to create fun, mystery and drama to your space.

Tunnels transport your guests as they enter and move through your environment. Adding projected graphics and messaging, and colorful lighting ramp up the dramatic effects of this interactive structure.

The Future Tunnel is 40' long with a variety of heights up to 16.' Light, gobos and projection provide an additional dynamic punch to your event design. The Tunnels are a natural match with other Pink Inc. fabric structures—mix and match to create a custom look and feel to your event.

Pink Inc. tunnels help keep your product or décor reveal hidden until the time is exactly right. With unlimited design options, the Future Tunnel is particularly suited dramatic entryways. The structure provides a fun, immersive experience which lighting and projection greatly enhance.
